Deepen the feeling with coloured oil

The addition of a white pigment in this colour produces a subtle, yet distinct light tone with a gentle hint of grey. This unique blend of hues provides a sophisticated and peaceful ambiance that is both calming and uplifting. Its understated elegance can complement a wide range of interior styles, from modern and minimalist to rustic and traditional.

The treatment is done on white oak floors and can vary in tones and look depending on what type of wood and condition of the floor.*
