Deepen the feeling with coloured oil

This colour offers a blend of deep, natural and warm tones with a subtle hint of grey. Its natural and soothing feel provides a timeless appeal that is both warm and relaxing, making it perfect for creating a comfortable and welcoming environment in any room. It can complement a wide range of interior design styles, from modern and minimalist to traditional and rustic.

The treatment is done on white oak floors and can vary in tones and look depending on what type of wood and condition of the floor.*
